Transcr. Simon Carlyle

The first staff starts with a circled 'A' and has a repeat sign. The second staff starts with a circled 'B'. Hankus Netsky writes that this tune is:

known commonly to Ukranian klezmerim as "Platsh yisroel" ("Cry, Israel"). ...

The tune also had great longevity in the Ukraine, and was among those officially banned when Soviet authorities attempted to silence Jewish music in the 1960s.
